PHOENIX MERCURY NEWS AND NOTES

MERC ROOKIES 1-2-3: Mercury rookies Emma Cannon, Yvonne Turner and Stephanie Talbot rank 1, 2 and 3 respectively among all WNBA rookies in field goal percentage this season. The three are the only rookies in the league shooting over 40 percent from the field.

WNBA Rookie Field Goal Percentage Leaders:

Emma Cannon506 (44-87)
Yvonne Turner437 (55-126)
Stephanie Talbot..... .420 (42-100)
Brittney Sykes401 (131-327)

DEFENSE WINS CHAMPIONSHIPS: The Mercury held its first two opponents of the 2017 season to under 70 points (Dallas-68, Indiana-62), marking the first time since 2014 that the Mercury has held its first two opponents of the season to under 70 points and just the second time in 14 years. Additionally, it was the fourth-straight regular season game (final 2 games of 2016 and first 2 games of 2017) the Mercury has held its opponents under 70 points. The last time the Mercury held four-straight opponents under 70 points was from July 5-15 during the 2005 season. Through the first six games of the season, Phoenix has held four opponents under 70 points, something the Mercury has not done since 2003 (held five of first six opponents under 70 points).

COACHING STAFF: Mercury head coach Sandy Brondello returns for her fourth year with the Mercury....Brondello was signed to a multi-year contract following last season on October 13, 2016.... Brondello is assisted by Julie Hairgrove (13th season) and Todd Troxel (4th season)....Brondello has a career record of 93-70 as head coach in the WNBA and a 79-50 record with the Mercury as head coach, which is the most wins in WNBA history by a head coach in their first four years with a team. She holds the best win percentage (.612) among all Mercury coaches in franchise history who have coached for at least one full season (Russ Pennell coached for 13 games and had a .692 win percentage), and is tied for the most playoff wins by a coach in Mercury history with 11.

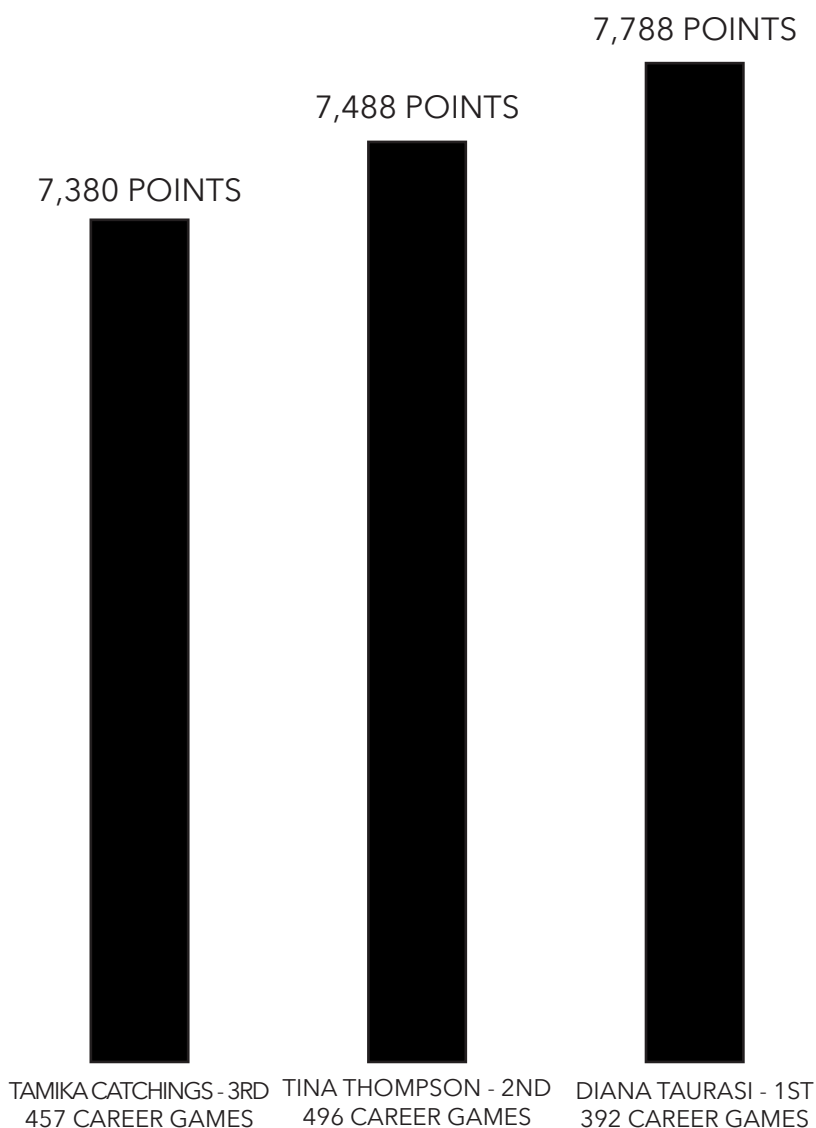

NEW TO THE MIGHTY MERCURY: With an entirely re-tooled roster from a year ago, the 2017 Mercury will showcase many new faces in Phoenix. New to this year's team is Emma Cannon (free agent), Cayla George (free agent, played on 2015 Mercury team), Camille Little (acquired via trade from Connecticut), Leilani Mitchell (free agent, played on 2015 Mercury team), Angel Robinson (rights acquired from Seattle during 2016 season in trade, signed this season), Danielle Robinson (acquired via trade from San Antonio), Stephanie Talbot (2014 Draft, 33rd overall by Phoenix), Monique Currie (acquired via trade from San Antonio, played on 2015 Mercury team) and Yvonne Turner (free agent).

'BOUNCE BACK': Despite the Mercury's 16-18 record last summer, history has been good to Phoenix coming off losing seasons, especially 16-18 records. After finishing 16-18 in 2008, the Mercury rebounded in 2009 by winning the WNBA Championship. Additionally, in the three losing seasons the Mercury has had since 2008 (2008, 2010, 2012), the team finished with a winning record in each of the following years, while also reaching the semifinals.

TROPHY CASE: The Mercury won their third WNBA Championship in 2014 and became the third franchise in the then 19-year history of the league with three or more championships....the Houston Comets (1997, 1998, 1999, 2000) and Detroit Shock (now Dallas, previously Tulsa) (2003, 2006, 2008) are the other two. Minnesota joined the list in 2015, while Los Angeles joined in 2016.

Sandy Brondello

HEAD COACH

FOURTH SEASON AS HEAD COACH OF PHOENIX • FIFTH

Veteran WNBA player, coach and former Australian Olympian Sandy Brondello (braun-DELL-oh) was named the ninth head coach in franchise history on November 15, 2013. Brondello also serves as the team's vice president of player personnel. On October 13, 2016, the Mercury signed Brondello to a multi-year contract extension

Known for her intense preparation for each opponent, Brondello has compiled an overall record of 55-38 in her first three seasons with the Mercury, ranking her third on the all-time wins list as a Mercury coach. She was named the 2014 WNBA Coach of the Year marking the first time a Mercury coach picked up the honor. She led the team to a WNBA regular season-record 29 wins and capped the season with a WNBA Championship.

An 12-year veteran of the WNBA coaching ranks, Brondello has been affiliated with the league for 18 of the league's 21 seasons, including her time as a player. A proven winner internationally and in the WNBA, her 11 total years as an assistant coach and head coach have featured eight playoff appearances, including five conference finals berths, the 2014 WNBA Championship and a spot in the 2008 WNBA Finals. Brondello joins the Mercury after serving as lead assistant coach for the Los Angeles Sparks (2011-13) under 2012 WNBA Coach of the Year Carol Ross. Brondello led the San Antonio Silver Stars to a 2010 playoff berth in her lone season at the helm following five seasons on the Silver Stars bench as an assistant under Dan Hughes (2005-09), the third-winningest coach in league history.

A 2010 inductee into the Australian Basketball Hall of Fame, Brondello was named the 11th head coach for the Australian Women's National basketball team on April 17, 2017. While she will continue to serve in her role as head coach for the Mercury, Brondello will spend her offseasons preparing the Aussies for a trip to the 2020 Summer Olympics in Tokyo.

During the WNBA offseason, Brondello serves an assistant coach with Russian League team UMMC Ekaterinburg. Now the Mercury's head of player personnel, Phoenix's pro scouting efforts are buoyed by Brondello's knowledge of and exposure to overseas talent.

Brondello finished a stellar 17-year professional playing career with a five-year run in the WNBA in which she played for Detroit (1998-99), Miami (2001-02) and Seattle (2003), and was named a 1999 WNBA All-Star. She began her career with the Women's National Basketball League (WNBL) in Australia (1986-96), and was named the league MVP in 1995. The 5-7 guard was a 10-time German Cup champion while playing with BTV Wuppertal (1992-2002), a three-time European Cup All-Star selection (1994, 1996, 1997), and the 1996 European Cup MVP when she led her team to the title.

An 18-year member of the Australian National Team, Brondello is a four-time Olympian, a two-time silver medalist (2000, 2004) and was named the 1992 Australian International Player of the Year. In her time with the national team, she was a teammate of Mercury forward Penny Taylor.

Brondello is married to Olaf Lange, who is the head coach of UMMC Ekaterinburg, and the couple has two children, Brody and Jayda.

#23 CAYLA GEORGE

6-4 • 192 • FORWARD/CENTER • AUSTRALIA

SECOND WNBA SEASON • RE-SIGNED AS FREE AGENT ON FEB. 7, 2017

Highlight: George tallied 14 points and 14 rebounds (all defensive) off the bench on July 28 at Chicago. The 14 defensive rebounds are the most by a player coming off the bench in WNBA history, and the 14 total rebounds are the most by a reserve in Mercury team history (Elias Sports Bureau).

- George's 14 defensive rebounds on July 28 were also the most by a Mercury player in a regulation game in team history (Candice Dupree had 17 on Aug. 7, 2014, in an OT game and Brittney Griner had 17 on June 7, 2014, in a 2OT game)
- On July 28, she tied her career-high in scoring (14 points at Tulsa on Sept. 13, 2015) and set a new career-high in rebounding with 14, surpassing the 12 she had in the same game at Tulsa on Sept. 13, 2015; also earned a new career-high three steals in a season-high 27 minutes and her second career double-double
- Has the only double-digit rebounding game off the bench for the Mercury this season and the first since Mistie Bass secured 10 rebounds vs. Seattle on Aug. 12, 2015
- Has seven career double-digit scoring games
- Has recorded 5+ rebounds in seven games this season, all off the bench
- Appeared in all 34 games (two starts) in 2015, earning one double-double and five 10+ point scoring games
- Played the 2016-17 season in Hungary for Uniqa Sopron (along with Yvonne Turner), where she averaged 11.9 points on 50.3 percent shooting, 7.5 rebounds and 1.5 assists in 23.5 minutes per game in 24 total games

#42 BRITTNEY GRINER

6-9 • 205 • CENTER • BAYLOR, '13 • HOUSTON, TX

FIFTH WNBA SEASON • SELECTED BY PHOENIX WITH THE FIRST OVERALL PICK IN THE 2013 WNBA DRAFT

Highlight: Griner made her return from an eight-game absence on Saturday. She is averaging career-highs in scoring (22.2 points per game), rebounding (8.1 rebounds per game), assists (2.0 assists per game) and playing time (31.4 minutes per game). With her second minute played on Aug. 12, she surpassed Cappie Pondexter (4,110) for seventh most in Mercury history.

PUTTING UP POINTS

- With her final point on June 16 vs. Chicago, Griner achieved her 2,000th career point. She became the seventh player to score 2,000 points in a Mercury uniform (Diana Taurasi, DeWanna Bonner, Penny Taylor, Candice Dupree, Jennifer Gillom, Cappie Pondexter).
- Achieved a new career-high 38 points on June 7 at Indiana. Entering Wednesday, that is the most points any WNBA player has scored in a game all season (Taurasi has second-most at 37).
- Has four 30+ point games this season after not having one in her first 122 career regular season games. With her three career 30-point, 10-rebound games, she has surpassed Diana Taurasi (two) for the most such games in team history. The Mercury are 4-0 when she scores 30 or more points and 8-1 when she scores at least 25 points.
- Notched her 11th 20+ point regular season game of the year on July 13 vs. Atlanta (33rd of her career)
- Has matched DeWanna Bonner (26) for the second-most double-doubles by a Mercury player in team history
- Became the first player in WNBA history to tally at least 80 points (89), 30 rebounds (31) and 15 blocks (15) through the first four games of a season

LEADING, NOT FOLLOWING

Entering Wednesday, Griner is...

- Leading the WNBA in scoring with 22.2 points per game
- Leading the WNBA in blocks with 2.5 blocks per game
- Leading the WNBA in free throws made with 6.3 FTM per game
- Leading the WNBA in free throws attempted with 7.5 FTA per game
- Tied for first in the WNBA in field goals made with 7.9 FGM per game
- Third in the WNBA in field goal percentage, shooting 57.6 percent on the season
- Fourth among centers in the WNBA in assists with 2.0 assists per game
- Fifth in the WNBA in field goals attempted with 13.8 FGA per game
- Eighth in the WNBA in rebounding with 8.1 rebounds per game

ALL-AROUND GAME FOR THE ALL-STAR

- Earned her fourth All-Star selection, meaning she has named an All-Star in every possible year of her career
- With her fourth rebound on July 9 vs. New York, she achieved the 1,000th of her career, becoming the fifth Mercury player to grab 1,000 rebounds (DeWanna Bonner, Diana Taurasi, Candice Dupree and Penny Taylor)
- Now eighth on the WNBA's all-time blocks list (470) after surpassing Taj McWilliams-Franklin (443) on June 7. Ruth Riley is seventh on the list with 505 blocks.
- Named the Western Conference Player of the Week for July 3-9 after averaging 25.3 points on 68.2 percent shooting from the field, 11.7 rebounds and 4.7 blocks per game. It marked her fourth such career honor, and her first since Aug. 10, 2015. She had two 30+ point performances and two double-doubles.

'STREAKIN'

- Her career-long regular season streak of scoring in double figures ended at 17 games long on June 30. She bested her 15-game streak that she set three years ago (July 6-Aug. 12, 2014).
- Had career-long five-game streak scoring 20+ points end on June 18 (had seven career two-game streaks prior to it)
- Had career-long nine-game streak of scoring 15+ points end on May 27; had also notched at least two rebounds and two blocks in each of those games, a nine-game streak only three NBA players did in the last 10 years (Anthony Davis had 10 straight in 2014-15, Amar'e Stoudemire 15 in 2010-11, nine in 2007-08, and Jermaine O'Neal nine in 2006-07)
- Recorded back-to-back double-doubles with her 32-point, 10-rebound night on May 17 and 20-point, 13-rebound performance on May 19. It marked her first two-game stretch of double-doubles since her first two playoff games from Sept. 17-19, 2015.

THIRTEENTH WNBA SEASON • SELECTED BY PHOENIX WITH THE 1ST OVERALL PICK IN THE 2004 WNBA DRAFT

Highlight: Taurasi has 199 career regular season games of scoring 20+ points, needing just 20 points in one more contest to reach the 200-game milestone. She already has the most such games in WNBA history. The next closest is Cappie Pondexter, who enters Friday with 151 career 20+ point games.

G.O.A.T.

- Taurasi (7,788) surpassed Tina Thompson (7,488) to become the WNBA's all-time scoring leader on June 18 at Los Angeles. It marked her 377th career regular season game, meaning she scored 7,488 points 119 games quicker than Thompson, who played 496 career regular season games. Taurasi entered the season third on the scoring list. She passed Tamika Catchings (7,380) for second on the WNBA's all-time scoring list on June 1 at Chicago.
- With Taurasi's first three-point field goal make on June 1 at Chicago, she surpassed Katie Smith (906) to become the WNBA's all-time leader in three-pointers made. She now has 983 career made three-pointers.
- Surpassed Katie Smith (2,466) to become the WNBA's all-time leader in three-point attempts on May 17 vs. Indiana
- Taurasi surpassed Tamika Catchings (2,385) for second on the WNBA's all-time field goals made list on June 10 vs. Los Angeles. Taurasi leads all active players with 2,492 field goals made. Tina Thompson is the all-time leader with 2,630 made field goals over her career.
- With 16 more free throw attempts, Taurasi will surpass Lisa Leslie (2,125) for the second-most in WNBA history
- Surpassed DeWanna Bonner (1,566) on Aug. 12 for the most rebounds in Mercury franchise history
- Became the 28th player in WNBA history to achieve at least 400 career steals on July 7 at San Antonio; needs five more steals to surpass Katie Smith (408) for 26th on the WNBA's all-time steals list
- Has scored 30+ points 45 times in her career, the most in WNBA history

JUST ANOTHER YEAR

- Her 18-game streak of scoring 10+ points ended on July 28 at Chicago. It was her longest regular season streak since June 24-Sept. 11, 2011 (a 27-game streak).
- Her streak of scoring 15+ points ended at 10 straight regular season games on July 5. It matched her longest such streak since since July 20-Sept. 11, 2011, a career-long 18-game streak.
- On June 1 at the Sky, Taurasi scored 37 points on 8-of-14 shooting from beyond the arc, marking her most points in a regular season game since dropping 44 points on July 14, 2010, at Seattle. Those 37 points are the second-most points a WNBA player has scored in a game this season, trailing only teammate Brittney Griner who scored 38 points in a game.
- With Taurasi's eight made three-pointers on June 1, she again tied the WNBA record for made threes in a regular season game, a mark she has now achieved three times in her career
- Against the Fever on May 17, she became the first player in WNBA history to achieve 7,000 career points, 1,500 rebounds and 1,500 assists. She is also the first player in league history with 6,000 points, 1,500 rebounds and 1,500 assists. Taurasi is just the second player in WNBA history with 5,000 points, 1,500 rebounds and 1,500 assists (Lindsay Whalen).
- Is averaging 19.1 points per game on the season, her highest scoring average since she finished 2013 scoring 20.3 PPG
- Is one of five active WNBA players with at least 1,500 career rebounds and 150 made three-pointers (teammate Monique Currie, teammate Camille Little, Candace Parker and Lindsay Whalen)

LEADING, NOT FOLLOWING

Entering Wednesday, Taurasi is...

- Leading the WNBA in three-point makes per game at 3.3 3PM per game
- Leading the WNBA in three-point attempts per game at 8.4 3PA per game
- Fifth in the WNBA in scoring with 19.1 points per game
- Tied for fifth in the WNBA in free throws made per game at 4.5 FTM per game
- 10th in the WNBA in free throw attempts per game at 4.9 FTA per game

HONORED

- Tallied 12 points and five assists at the All-Star Game on July 22. She has been a starter in the All-Star Game each year she has been eligible in her 13-season career (no All-Star Game in 2004, 2008, 2010, 2012, 2016; sat out 2015 season).
- Named the Western Conference Player of the Week for May 29-June 4 after averaging 27.0 points on 55.5 percent shooting from the field, 63.2 percent shooting from beyond the arc, and 3.5 assists per game.
